TOM CRIGLER

Thomas,
In appreciation,
your mom was a large part of this annual. So if your picture in ~~the~~ here
you know why.
Darcy

Tom,
You're a really neat guy. Be good this summer and I'll see you next year. Good luck.
Love ya,
Jenny
"68"

Tom,
Well, you're a pretty sharp guy. Have fun this summer.
See me next year when
we'll be juniors (ok, ok).
Good luck

Presents

The Trumpet
of 1966

Is there some problem in your life to solve
Some passage seeming full of mystery?
God knows, who brings the hidden things to light.
He keeps the key.

Is there some door closed by the Father's hand,
Which widely opened you had hoped to see?
Trust God, and wait . . . for when
He shuts the door
He keeps the key.

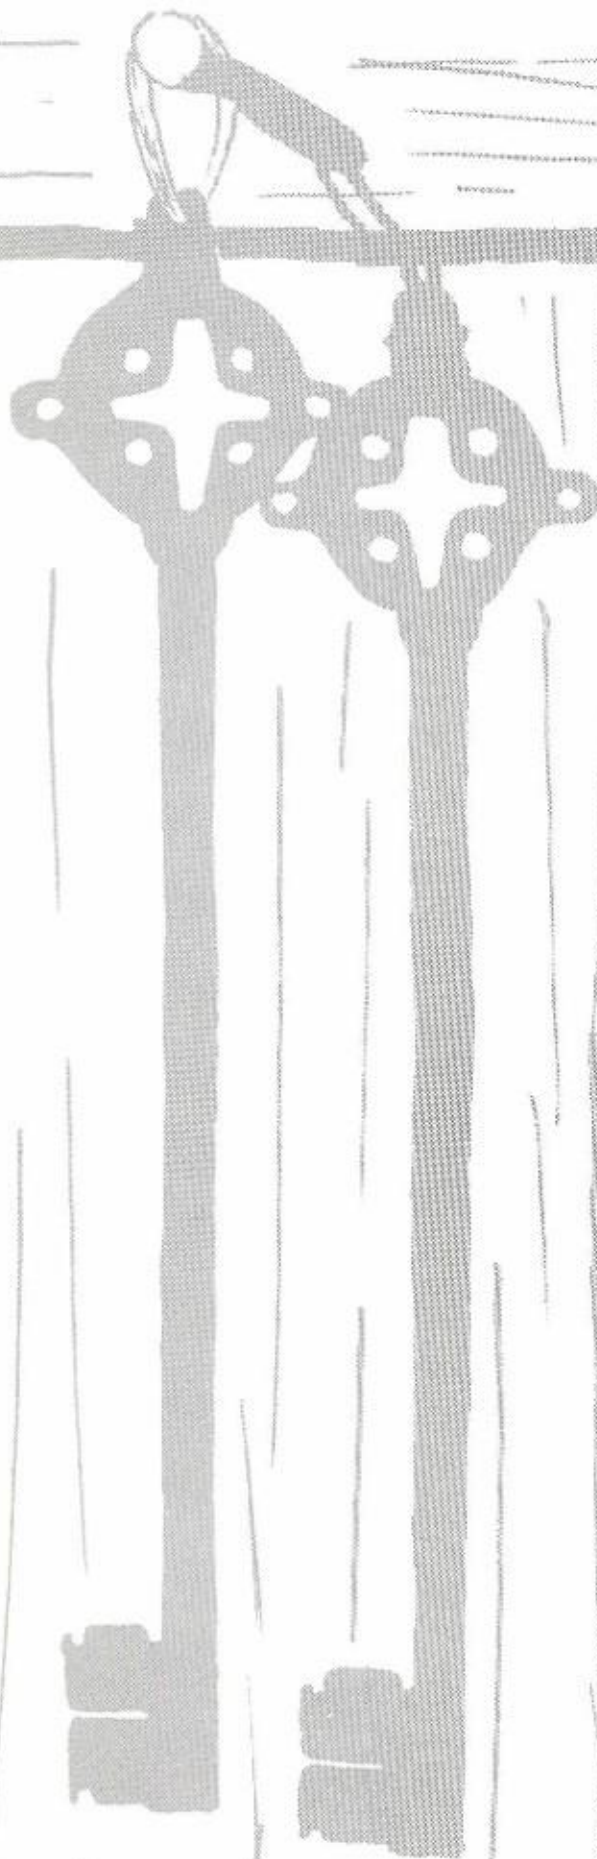

Is there some earnest prayer
unanswered yet,
Or answered not as you thought t'would be?
God will make clear His purpose
by and by
He keeps the key.

Have patience with your God,
your patient God,
All wise, all knowing, no long tarrier He,
And of the door of all future
life
He keeps the key.

Unfailing comfort, sweet and blessed rest.
To know of every door, He keeps the key
That he at last when just He sees
'tis best,
Will give it thee.

"Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. "

Dedication

Purpose and perseverance have been the hallmarks and head-dress of this wonderful man, influenced always by his unwavering loyalty to the LORD JESUS CHRIST. His wisdom and maturity permeate his work, his ability constantly renewed and retained in his devotion, and tireless service since the conception and infancy of W. C. H. S. His menclature is nondescript to set forth the strength and spirituality that radiates from his presence.

It is with deep gratitude for such devotion that we the Student Body dedicate THE TRUMPET of 1966 to you, PHIL MARTIN.

In Appreciation

In order to express our deepest admiration and appreciation, we would like to thank you for your sincere concern for each one of us. You have sparked our games with consistent enthusiasm and school spirit. The Christian testimony exemplified in your daily life is an inspiration to each of us. We appreciate your faithfulness as Vice-president of the PTF, cooperation in the concession stands and general behind the scenes efforts. For the extra mile that you have always given, we extend our appreciation to you, Mrs. Gladys Crigler.

Principal's Message

We are in a world of rapid change. The knowledge of yesterday is insufficient for today. The methods of former times do not fit in these changing times. But in the midst of all the rapid advancement in knowledge, learning, exploration, scientific discovery; we rely on an ancient book which is as modern as tomorrow's newspaper and we trust in an unchanging infinite Christ who holds the keys to the future.

Members of this graduating class face a period of active war and some will be called upon to face enemy fire in defense of their country. He holds the key to this problem.

This social world is in the midst of serious adjustment. Christians everywhere are called upon to provide stability and reason to these adjustments. He holds the key as to the contribution we will make to this need.

Our school faces the responsibility of changing our methods to meet these times without changing the great principles of Christianity that we uphold. He holds the key to the advancements we will make.

As the door opens to another school year, we find the Board of Whittier Christian High diligently planning the ensuing events. After many hours of prayer, these men endeavor to outline the activities in the way that the Lord leads. We, as the student body, wish to express our appreciation and gratitude for your concern in our behalf.

As the door to another year in Girl's League is opened, each girl is given the opportunity to work together, developing closer relationships with each other and the Lord. We begin the year with the Newcomer's Tea to acquaint the Freshmen and their mothers with our activities. Among these affairs are, the annual slumber party, Mother-Daughter Tea, and Fashion Show.

As the door opens to the first year of the Boys League, the Centurions plan a pizza party, slumber party, and a camp-out. We are pleased to add this new organization to our scope of activities.

As the door opens to the 1966 Trumpet Staff, we snap candid photos, write informative copy, and type diligently to meet our deadlines. After many brain storming sessions, we prayerfully chose the theme and cover for our annual. The work is sometimes overwhelming but is worthwhile in June when the annuals are issued.

God's Precious Stones

Fall

As the doors open to the Walter Knott Room, we enter the world of "God's Precious Stones".

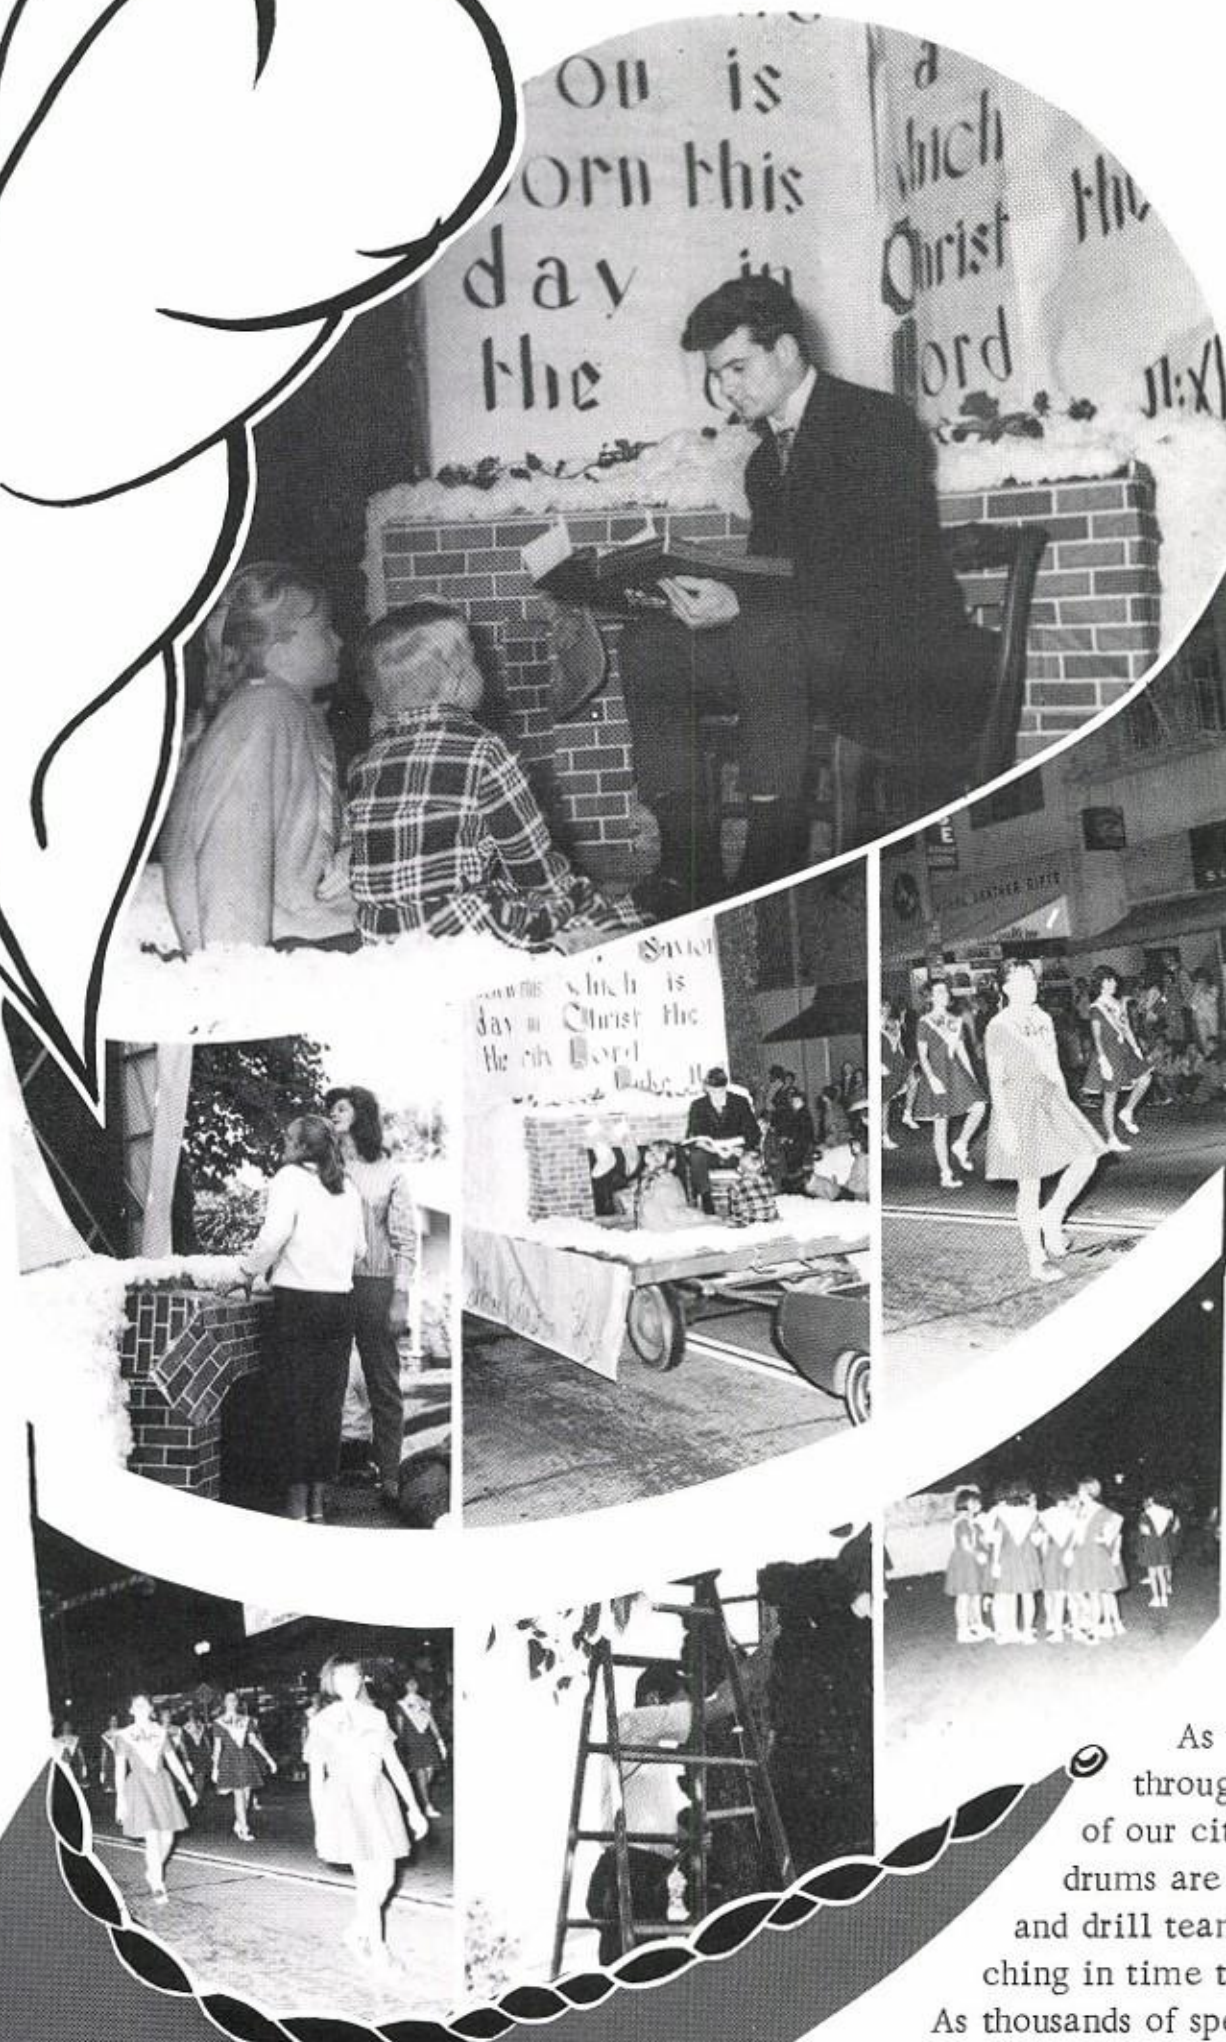

After an elegant dinner, the Pathfinder's Quartet sings for us, and Dan Hale entertains us with his rendition of "David and Goliath". The evening is climaxed by a message in sight, sound, and song from Greg and Barbara Loren.

Banquet

Christmas

Parade

As we walk through the door of our city, the drums are pounding and drill teams are marching in time to the beat. As thousands of spectators look on, our float entitled "Childhood Memories" makes it's way along the parade route. Posed on the float are Dennis Hammer, Sharie and Wayne Link, depicting a solemn family scene and demonstrating a Christian testimony to the entire city.

Christmas Party

As the door opens to a new year, we close the door on the old with a Christmas Party. The afternoon includes such activities as a skit presented by the speech class, homemade refreshments, an offering for Missionary Aviation Fellowship, and the breaking of our Christmas pinata.

As the door opens to our junior year, the responsibility of planning the Junior-Senior Banquet faces us. Throughout the year we wash cars and sell hamburgers, tacos, and candy to finance the project. This responsibility gives us a realization of the importance of working together as a class.

As the door opens to new vistas of challenge and responsibility, we begin our sophomore year. Since the Fall Banquet is ours this year, we sponsor hamburger and taco sales to finance the occasion. Among our yearly activities as a class, fall, a trip to the Pomona County Fair, Mt. Baldy, and a bowling party.

As the door of Whittier Christian High School opens, we freshmen anxiously anticipate the activities of our first year of high school.

After the first few terrifying weeks, we finally feel like we fit into the student body.

Under the guidance of our advisor, Miss Jungkeit, we plan a Christmas party and hope to contribute our best to support the school.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come unto him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

Revelation 3:20

Dear Tom,

Just lately it seems like we've grown so close & we're so able to talk to each other so easily - I've realized how much we really have in Common -

Tom, I've blown it so many times not just for you but for lots of people - I guess the only way I'll ever really quit thinking of myself is when I get married.

I don't know what this summer will bring, but whatever it does, ^{And I will give unto thee} I'm sure it's all in God's plan. One thing, ^{the keys of the kingdom of} I want you to promise me one thing, we're both ^{heaven and whatsoever} HEARING from others about each other - ^{thou shalt bind on earth} I don't want you to jump to any conclusions ^{shall be bound in heaven:} until WE (I & no one else) straighten it out, ^{and whatsoever thou shalt} I'll do the same.
^{loose on earth shall be}

I know I mess ^{loosed in heaven.} around & you get mad but honest Tom, ^{Matthew 16:19} you are the only one I really love. And I'm praying that God's will will keep us together.

'See you in September - Don't forget me -

Carol
